Rochdale 28th Sept.
1846.

GARRISON
MSS.

Dear Friend,

So you are likely to be in Manchester on the 13th Oct., can you say what evening you will visit Rochdale? I am holding many Meetings on the Subject of "American Man-Stealing" in this neighbourhood, and the subject is almost new to the people. A Rev. parson called me an Infidel, and a dozen more such names, last Friday, for circulating the small bill - "American Manstealing", but this is just what I expected. There are thousands, however, of the true friends of the Bible who are heart and soul with you in this County, of Ten Millions of people!

I gave an Address on Slavery last night (Sabbath) and the reading of F. Douglass' oration at page 64 of the "Narrative" produced a powerful impression on the audience.

In haste,

William Logan.

Wm. L. Garrison.
